

Fine Foodies

Passionate about good food

Cool classics

Ice cream comes in endless varieties, but there's no beating the old favourites.

Raspberry ripple

A staple of many a British childhood, this popular family dessert is making a comeback with creamier, fruitier and all-natural versions.

TRY: Purbeck Raspberry Ripple from a Dorset ice cream maker. There is now a Banoffee Ripple variant, banana ice cream with ripples of dulce de leche toffee sauce. Also new and for the really adventurous is one of Purbeck's funkier flavours, Beetroot and Horseradish, delicious either sweet with chocolate, or savoury with roast beef!